KAISER AND SULTAN.

A dispatch from Constantinople says: The German imperial yacht, Hohenzollern, accompanied by the German warships Hertha and Hela, and the Sultan's yacht Izmedin, with the Turkish imperial commission on board, appeared off Odessa Point Tuesday morning, and the guns of Selimich barracks thundered a salute.

Crowds thronged the approaches to the Dolmabahce palace during the salutes and shouted a welcome to their majesties, which was answered by the "hoops" of the German sailors.

The Sultan's suite included all the ministers and high civil authorities and all the German military officers in the employ of Turkey.

The meeting between the Sultan and his guests was cordial. The Sultan warmly shook hands with the Emperor and Empress, and offering his arm to the Empress, led the way to a pavilion of the palace, where the Emperor engaged in conversation with the Sultan, the Grand Vizier and other members of the Sultan's suite.

The route to the Yildiz Palace was covered with carpeting and lined with troops, prominent among them being the Sultan's body guard of Albanians and the Imperial Guard, the whole making a magnificent display.

All eyes centered on the large gate of the palace, and soon the Sultan appeared, in full uniform, in an open carriage, with the Empress of Germany on his right.

The Empress, who looked very well, bowed continually right and left in response to the cheering of the people. In a second carriage was the Emperor, in the uniform of the Hussar of the Guard, and the Grand Vizier, Fud Pasha.

Then came the suits of the Emperor and Empress, the Turkish Ministers, the German Ambassador, Baron Marschall von Bieberstein, and his staff. The whole party proceeded to the Yildiz Kiosk, amid the deafening plaudits of the crowd. The Sultan and the Emperor and Empress subsequently exchanged visits.

MISCELLANEOUS.

More than 100 delegates were present in Washington at the opening of the sixth annual convention of the National Spiritualists' Association Tuesday.

It is understood in the War Department that Congress may refuse to ratify the appointments, as second lieutenants in the regular army, of young men who failed either mentally or physically in their examinations, but were appointed notwithstanding and are now attached to their regiments.

Judge Hammond, of the U.S. Circuit Court, in Cleveland, O., yesterday, granted the application of the American Steel and Wire Company for an injunction against the striking wire drawers. The injunction is a blanket one and applies to all the defendants named in the petition and to any others who may hereafter interfere with the employees of the company.

Speaker David O. Watkins, of the New Jersey House of Assembly, was sworn in as acting governor of the State last night, in consequence of the resignation of Acting Governor Foster M. Voorhees as Senator from Union county, which action with it the forfeiture of the acting governorship. New Jersey will, by the resignation of Mr. Voorhees, be compelled to have the unusual number of five governors in one year.

As head of one of the strongest and wealthiest congregations in Brooklyn, Rev. Lewis E. Wain, pastor of the Universalist Church of Our Father, Grand avenue and Lefferts place, has taken a bold stand against Sunday evening services. He has placed his resignation in the hands of the trustees of his church, because, he says, he will not lower himself to the place of using sensational methods to attract Sunday evening audiences, who seek entertainment rather than spiritual strength, and are not enough interested in churches they attend to pay for the gas burned.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle-working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by E. S. Allen and E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

EXPOSURE to a sudden climatic change produces cold in the head and catarrh is apt to follow. Provided with Ely's Cream Balm, you are armed against Nasal Catarrh. Druggists are sold 50 cents, or Ely Brothers, 50c. Warren Street, New York, will send the 50c. or 10c. trial size. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and inflamed surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation, cleanses and cures. Cream Balm quickly cures the cold.

It Hangs On

If it was only health, we might let it cling. But it is a cough. One cold no sooner passes off before another comes. But it's the same old cough all the time. And it's the same old story, too. There is first the cold, then the cough, then pneumonia or consumption with the long sickness, and life trembling in the balance.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral
loosens the grasp of your cough. The congestion of the throat and lungs is removed; all inflammation is subdued; the parts are put perfectly at rest and the cough drops away. It has no diseased tissues on which to hang.

Dr. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral Plaster draws out inflammation of the lungs.
Advice Free.
Remember we have a Medical Department. If you have any complaint whatever and desire the best medical advice you can possibly obtain, write the doctor freely. You will receive a prompt reply, without cost.
Address, Dr. J. C. Ayer, Lowell, Mass.
